THE HONOR TO BUILD
deangelis diamond

We're

DEANGELIS DIAMOND

Here's what we do:

In our first 20 years we have grown rapidly from a highly successful regional construction management company to a nationally known and well-respected innovative leader in the industry. Today, DeAngelis Diamond is one of America's fastest-growing companies, according to Inc. 5000, with a highly diverse project portfolio.

Now that we've piqued your interest...

»» Our offices are located in 5 cities, we are licensed to perform work in 45 states across the U.S. and we also have a presence in the Caribbean.

Safety is our #1 priority.

Our goal on every project is ZERO incidents. Our drive for efficient, quality construction and fast track scheduling does not detract from ensuring the safety of our team members, subcontractors, the client's staff, and the general public. Throughout our company, we instill the value of every worker returning home safely at the end of the day. No deadline, project or workplace activity is worth the risk of injury.

Rehabilitation

There are many different aspects of healthcare construction and we recognize how important it is that patients feel comfortable and are in an environment where they can be treated efficiently and with dignity. We are extremely knowledgeable about the inner workings and are aware of what it takes to deliver a first class healthcare facility.

The DeAngelis Diamondway...

Pre-Construction Process

Our pre-construction leadership plan always leads to a successful project. Our goals being; eliminate change orders, no surprises during construction, and maximize value. Always ensuring that the project cost doesn't exceed the value.

Lean Methodology

We include Lean principles on all projects and in our offices. Principles such as continuous improvement, planning work for the next trade, and respect for others promotes collaboration and fosters lasting relationships.

Sustainability

We are committed to partnering with our clients to meet their goals of environmental stewardship and social responsibility. All of our DD team members are encouraged to participate and support their community environmental programs.

Our People

We know it's our people that make us a great company and they are the absolute best in their field. They inspire each other to be better through intentional mentoring and collaboration. Our team members are a bright, talented, humble group that embodies our values and culture.

Training

We are serious about our future and we believe in the success of our awesome team members. DeAngelis Diamond Academy is our training platform that ensures the education of the future leaders of the company and our industry. We offer a variety of topics and courses that align with our mission, values, culture, industry trends, and our team members' innovative minds.

Quality

Quality is much more than a project looking nice when it is completed. A Quality Process is when our clients can say that from pre-construction through warranty management it was a pleasurable experience and they would hire us again. This is our goal and unwavering commitment for each and every DD project.

Technology

Advances in technology have been an important part of our growth and will continue to impact our future at DeAngelis Diamond. We bring the project team together in real time to resolve issues and communicate more efficiently. The level of coordination has reached new heights, which results in improvements to the critical path and accelerating overall schedules.

HERE'S A PEEK INTO OUR

» Culture

AT DEANGELIS DIAMOND

Our team members are our most significant asset. The environment and culture of our workplace will motivate, encourage, and promote our people and their talents. We want our people to feel this is the greatest work experience they can have. We recognize that career and family life should be in balance. In this spirit and in accordance to our values and principles, our culture focuses on developing and encouraging healthy families.

leadership

give > get

We believe it is our blessing to help those around us through our own time and resources. Developing serving leaders is part of our culture and consistent with our mission and values. Those values come to life as each team member takes time out of his or her busy schedule to provide a helping hand to those in need. Volunteering brings our team members as well as our communities together. To give is better than to get isn't a marketing strategy but rather our culture of generosity.

our mission

DeAngelis Diamond is committed to building relationships for the future through honor, integrity, and trust that achieve our clients' goals while having a positive influence on our team members, subcontractors, community, and industry.
